My dear Admiral:

In the course of interrogation of the former German Minister of Post and Transportation, Wilhelm Ohnesorge, he discussed several war inventions with me. I advised him to write his ideas down in a memorandum.

Since this memorandum might be of interest to your office I am turning it over to you for whatever use you might like to make of it. I am also attached a letter ~~that~~ Ohnesorge wrote to me together with the memorandum.

I would like to inform you that Ohnesorge was released from the Nurnberg jail. He will not be tried as a major war criminal in Nurnberg as things stand now. Since he was a cabinet member of the Third Reich he will be subject to a denazification procedure by the German denazification courts.

Yours very truly,

/s/
